This custom-built bungalow is an absolute gem, featuring a walk-out basement and designed for maximum energy efficiency with ICF walls on both levels. Located just 25 minutes west of Grande Prairie and 5 minutes east of Beaverlodge, this property combines convenience with countryside tranquility. The nearby town of Beaverlodge offers all the amenities you need with a touch of small-town hospitality, and families will love that great schools are close by, with school buses driving right to your driveway. The main floor boasts a spacious kitchen outfitted with beautiful hickory cabinets and granite countertops, two large bedrooms, two full bathrooms (including a stunning ensuite), a sizable laundry room, and a cozy living room complete with a gas fireplace and hardwood floors. Downstairs, the walk-out basement features a wood stove for added warmth, two additional bedrooms, a full bathroom, a family room, and a mechanical room—all enhanced by in-floor heating powered by a high-efficiency tankless boiler. Outside, you'll love the wrap-around deck on three sides, including an east-facing deck equipped with a sun grid and hot tub, perfect for taking in the breathtaking mountain views, gorgeous sunsets, and northern lights. The property is beautifully landscaped, with four outbuildings, a fenced-off garden and raised garden boxes, and a private firepit area complete with a shelter wall. The attached 26x26 heated garage comes with built-in cabinets, counters, and 220 power, making it a versatile space for any project. And if you need to head into the city, getting to shopping centres like Costco is just a quick 25-minute drive away. This property truly offers the best of both worlds—modern comfort and small-town charm.
